Tips to Help You Make Your Decisions

Medical/Prescription Drug

Is the information on file about your dependents accurate?

Open enrollment is a good opportunity to make sure the dependent information on your Personalized Enrollment Worksheet (available on the secure Desktop Benefits site in the Message Center) is up to date and accurate.

About Your Medical Plan Options

- If you live in an area where a fully developed UHC provider network is not available, you may elect coverage with the UnitedHealthcare (UHC) Out-of-Area plan. For a description of this plan, see Your 2021 Benefits Handbook.
- If you live in Hawaii, you may choose coverage with the UHC Hawaii plan or the Kaiser Permanente health maintenance organization (HMO). A description of these plans can be found on Desktop Benefits (choose Compare My Medical Plan Choices and then choose the appropriate chart).

Reminder:

- If you make a change to your medical coverage during the correction period (October 24 to December 11), your first January paycheck may not reflect your change and there may be a delay in when you receive your new medical ID card, if applicable.

Reminder for Retired Military: The Company Continues to Offer the TRICARE Supplement Plan*

If you or your spouse has retired from any of the U.S. armed forces with at least 20 years of service and receives health services through the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, the TRICARE Supplement Plan continues to be available as a voluntary benefit to you and your spouse, if applicable.

While the company does not sponsor the TRICARE Supplement Plan, the company provides access to it for eligible employees through pre-tax deductions.

For more information about the TRICARE Supplement Plan, contact Selman & Company ASI, the plan's administrator, at 800-638-2610 or go to www.asicorporation.com/raytheon. To enroll in the TRICARE Supplement Plan, call the RBC at 800-358-1231.

Beginning January 1, 2021, the TRICARE Supplement Plan will not be available in Colorado, Maine, New Hampshire, Utah or Washington.*

If you do not take action during open enrollment, your benefits as highlighted on your Personalized Enrollment Worksheet will become effective January 1, 2021.* Any contributions you currently make to an FSA(s) will end with your last 2020 paycheck.

Note that any changes you make to disability, life insurance and/or AD&D insurance coverage become effective on January 1, 2021, as long as you are actively at work and have received approval for any requested coverage increases where evidence of insurability is required.*

Tips to Help You Make Your Decisions

Vision

What kind of vision expenses do you anticipate for 2021?

To choose a vision plan, consider the cost of coverage (see your Personalized Enrollment Worksheet) and how services are covered (see Your 2021 Benefits Handbook).

If you anticipate significant expenses next year, in addition to considering the Vision Plus Plan, you may want to explore funding a health care or a limited purpose dental and vision FSA. See the next column for more information.

Reminder:

- If you are enrolled in the Vision Plus Plan and receive glasses and frames or contact lenses during the year, and wish to change to the Basic Vision Plan during open enrollment, you will not be eligible for glasses and frames or contact lenses until the second year you're enrolled in the Basic Vision Plan.

Dental

What kind of dental expenses do you anticipate for 2021?

As with vision, consider the cost of coverage and how services are covered. If you anticipate significant expenses next year, consider funding a health care or a limited purpose dental and vision FSA.

Reminder:

- If you are eligible for and elect the DeltaCare (MA) or DeltaCare USA (AZ, CA, CO, FL, IN, VA or TX) DMO for the first time during open enrollment, contact Delta Dental to choose a primary care dentist (PCD) who participates in the appropriate network.

Flexible Spending Accounts (FSAs)

Need help deciding if an FSA is right for you?

The Health Care Flexible Spending Account Modeler and/or the Dependent Care Flexible Spending Account Modeler can help you estimate eligible expenses. To access the modelers from Desktop Benefits, click on My Resources and then Show More Links under Tools & Resources.

Reminders:

- In order to participate in an FSA in 2021, you must actively enroll during the open enrollment period. Any current participation does not continue into the new year.
- Be sure to estimate your expenses carefully. IRS regulations require that you forfeit any money not used while you're contributing to either FSA (generally by December 31, 2021).
- For detailed guidelines on eligible FSA expenses, review Internal Revenue Service (IRS) Publication 502 (health care/limited purpose dental and vision) or 503 (dependent care), available at www.irs.gov.
- If you elect to fund a health care or a limited purpose dental and vision FSA for the first time in 2021, you will receive a BenefitWallet debit card in December.

Reminder: In addition to having the option of participating in a health care FSA, you may instead elect to participate in a limited purpose dental and vision FSA. For more information, see Your 2021 Benefits Handbook.

Tips to Help You Make Your Decisions

Disability

To determine the amount of disability coverage that is appropriate for you, consider the following:

- Does the company-provided basic short-term disability (STD) coverage (75% of your weekly base pay) provide sufficient protection if you were out of work for up to 10 weeks? Would purchasing an additional 25% of salary replacement coverage (so benefits would total 100% of your weekly base pay) give you greater peace of mind?
- How much long-term disability (LTD) coverage would you need in the event you're out of work for an extended period of time?
- Are you eligible for occupational LTD coverage, which supplements workers' compensation benefits in the event you suffer a disability that is work-related? If so, see Your 2021 Benefits Handbook for examples of when you might consider purchasing this coverage.

Reminders:

- You may enroll in additional STD coverage (STD Plus) and/or LTD coverage during open enrollment or at any time during the year. Either way, you may be required to complete a Statement of Health to show proof of good health. If this applies to you, follow the prompts when you make your election.
- If you didn't enroll in the occupational LTD plan when you were first eligible, you can only enroll during the annual benefits open enrollment period. A Statement of Health is not required.

Life Insurance

When was the last time you calculated the amount of life insurance coverage that makes sense for you and your family?

To access Prudential's life insurance calculator, link to Prudential at www.prudential.com/raytheon from the My Resources page on Desktop Benefits.

Reminders:

- Certain increases in employee and spouse optional life insurance are subject to proof of good health. If this applies to you, follow the prompts when you make your election(s). You must be actively at work for any increases in coverage to go into effect.
- Open enrollment is a good time to designate or update your life insurance beneficiary(ies). From Desktop Benefits, click on the link to the Prudential beneficiary website under At Your Fingertips. After you provide or update your beneficiary designation(s), click SUBMIT to save your information.

Remember to Confirm or Update Your Beneficiary Designations!

REMEMBER: Statements confirming your 2021 benefit elections and listing your beneficiaries will be posted on Desktop Benefits in the Message Center in late November. Your beneficiary statement will include the electronic designations you have on file for the following plans:

- Life insurance,
- AD&D,
- Raytheon Savings and Investment Plan (RAYSIP),
- Retirement Income Savings Program (RISP) (if applicable),
- Pension (if applicable) and
- Deferred compensation (if applicable).

Your statement will include instructions on how to update beneficiary designations.

Tips to Help You Make Your Decisions

Accidental Death & Dismemberment (AD&D) Insurance

To determine if you need AD&D coverage, ask yourself a few questions:

- Whether commuting to work or going on vacation, accidents happen. Would having access to a rehabilitation benefit offer you peace of mind?
- Do you travel frequently? Would it be helpful to have access to an emergency evacuation benefit, medical emergency services, pre-departure information and assistance with lost baggage or passports?

Reminders:

- Open enrollment is a good time to designate or update your AD&D beneficiary(ies). To do so from Desktop Benefits, click on My Life.

Remember to Confirm or Update Your Beneficiary Designations!

- In addition to yourself, any dependents you enroll in the AD&D plan are eligible for emergency travel assistance, VIP concierge services, worldwide travel assistance and security assistance (including if you/they are a victim of identity theft) through AIG Travel.

Group Legal

Do you anticipate legal expenses for next year?

To learn more about the group legal plan, go to www.legalplans.com. If you are not a member, click on Thinking About Enrolling and enter the password 6650010. You may also call 800-821-6400. If you are a member, click on Members Log In and enter your member number.

Reminder:

- If you currently participate in the group legal plan, your participation will automatically continue in 2021 unless you elect to drop coverage during open enrollment.

Paying Off Your Student Loans?

Enrollment Period For the Student Loan Repayment Contribution (SLRC) Program Begins November 1

The Student Loan Repayment Contribution (SLRC) program is designed to help boost the retirement savings of employees who are paying off their student loans.

The company will make a dollar-for-dollar contribution to your Raytheon Savings and Investment Plan (RAYSIP) account equal to the amount you pay in student loans, up to the amount of the company match you would otherwise be eligible to receive if you were making RAYSIP contributions.

Enrollment for the 2021 program year begins on November 1. Note that if you currently participate in the SLRC program and wish to participate again in 2021, you will need to actively enroll. Your current enrollment will not automatically carry over.

Watch for more information on Desktop Benefits and on Fidelity's NetBenefits website. Questions? Call Fidelity at 800-354-3966. Customer Service Representatives are available from 8:30 a.m. to midnight Eastern Time (ET) any business day.

To participate in the SLRC program during 2021, you must enroll during the upcoming enrollment period (November 1 to December 11, 2020)—even if you currently participate. If you don't enroll, your next opportunity to enroll will be during the fall of 2021 for the 2022 program.

General Reminders

Covering Eligible Family Members

During open enrollment, you may also go to the secure Desktop Benefits site to:

- Begin or discontinue coverage for an eligible dependent. If you wish to add an eligible dependent to your company-sponsored medical, vision and/or dental plan and/or to your life insurance and/or AD&D plans (as outlined in Your 2021 Benefits Handbook), you will need to provide dependent eligibility verification (such as a marriage certificate, birth certificate or joint tax return). If the verification documents are not received when required, your dependent's coverage will not be effective on January 1.
- Confirm that your dependent information on file (as shown on your Personalized Enrollment Worksheet in the Message Center on the secure Desktop Benefits site) is accurate and that your enrolled dependents continue to meet the eligibility requirements (as outlined in Your 2021 Benefits Handbook).
- Change the special status of a dependent due to a disability.

Changing Your Coverage Outside of the Benefits Open Enrollment Period

Outside of the benefits open enrollment period, you are permitted to make certain changes to your benefits (i.e., add or drop dependents, add or drop coverage, or change plans) only if you have a qualified change in status, such as marriage, divorce or legal separation, or the loss or gain of an eligible dependent.

See Your 2021 Benefits Handbook for information about making changes as well as a complete description of eligible dependents. Remember that any change(s) you make must be due to and consistent with your change in status.

Can't locate a document(s) that is required to add a dependent?

For a fee, you can use Vitalchek to request copies of official government certificates (e.g., birth, marriage, divorce). For details, go to www.vitalchek.com.

Don't Forget!

If you have questions about a specific benefit, contact the plan carrier (contact information is available on both the public and secure Desktop Benefits sites)!

Questions? Call the RBC at 800-358-1231. Benefit service representatives are available Monday through Friday from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m. Eastern Time (ET).

- December 11: Correction period ends—last day to make benefit changes for 2021. Remember: Outside of the annual benefits open enrollment period, the only way you can make changes to most benefits is if you experience a qualified change in status (such as marriage, divorce or the birth or adoption of a child) or if your address changes to outside your current medical plan's service area. In these cases, the change(s) you make must be due to and consistent with your change in status.

Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC)

Group health plans are required to provide consumers with a Summary of Benefits and Coverage (SBC), a document that describes health plan benefits and coverage using simple and consistent language. To view the SBC for your company-sponsored medical plan, go to Desktop Benefits.

HIPAA Notice

The Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA) is designed to help keep personal health information private as well as to make it easier for you and your family members to have continued group health plan coverage when you or a family member loses coverage through an employer. Here is a summary of the act's provisions.

Protected Health Information. The company's health benefit plans' HIPAA Notice of Privacy Practices for Protected Health Information explains what "protected health information" is; how the plans may use and disclose this information; and how you can exercise your rights concerning this information. HIPAA requires that the plans remind you that this notice is available on the secure Desktop Benefits site or by calling the RBC at 800-358-1231.

Special Enrollment Opportunities. If you decline coverage for yourself or your eligible family members because of other health insurance coverage, you may be able to enroll yourself or your dependents in a company-sponsored health plan or change your health plan election in the future, provided that you request enrollment within 31 days of when your other coverage ends.

This special enrollment right is available only if one of the following conditions is met:

- You or a family member becomes ineligible for coverage under another employer's health plan or other health insurance;

- An employer's contributions for the other coverage stop; or
- In the case of COBRA coverage, because the maximum COBRA period has expired.

In addition, if you or a dependent gains or loses eligibility for Medicaid, Medicare or a state children's health plan, or if you or a dependent becomes eligible or ineligible for state assistance for coverage under the plan, you may be able to enroll or end coverage for yourself or your dependents, provided you request enrollment within 31 days of the date eligibility was gained or lost, or within 60 days in the case of a Medicaid or state assistance event.

You also have a special enrollment opportunity if:

- You marry; or
- You or your spouse acquires a dependent through your marriage or the birth, adoption or placement for adoption of the dependent.

Federal law requires the company to provide accurate Social Security number (SSN) information to your medical carrier, which then produces quarterly reporting for Medicare. Whether or not you're making any benefit changes this benefits open enrollment period, be sure to visit the secure Desktop Benefits site and check the SSNs currently on record for your eligible dependents. If your dependents' SSNs are not accurate, please make the necessary corrections before the October 23 deadline.

If you are adding eligible dependents, all necessary verification documents must be confirmed before a dependent's coverage becomes effective. See Your 2021 Benefits Handbook (available on both the public and secure Desktop Benefits sites) for more information.
